Goregaon Bhai, Indore Bhai, Delhi Bhai and others from "Goregaon ki Aai (2015)", a satirical comedy movie have become heroes of Indian Cinema because of their amazing performance in the movie. Although they were only playing three different parts of the four super funny characters in this movie, but their roles brought huge success to the movie and the movie has reached to the Guinness Book of World Records. Today, you can watch the whole movie online in high definition quality on many websites. The reason why the movie is so popular is because of the brilliant humor of the movie and the amazing performance by all the four actors. But there are many who are not aware of their existence, as they are not the greatest actor or actress in India. But their movie has proved the fact that they can play comedy roles and any character is possible. The story of the movie is told by two friends, Raj and Shivaji, who used to go out together to have fun. In their college campus they met many girls but they wanted something different and they wanted to experience something different in their life. They were doing their graduate in Mumbai, but in their campus they saw a very attractive girl and they fell in love with her. They called the girl to have fun with them. But on the other hand, the girl was a little shy and she refused to have a relationship with them. They were sad after seeing the girl. But one day they both got an information that an old man has been died in the hospital because of no money. They were sad after knowing this. It was a very important news for them as they were rich and had not anything to spend. They could not give her enough money. So 2d92ce491b
